

House Resolution No. 116

Whereas, the Missouri House of Representatives is fully cognizant of the important role which the Boy Scouts of America organization plays in offering a well-rounded program of activities designed to prepare young men for the many diverse challenges of responsible citizenship; and

Whereas, Jason Littles of Piedmont, Missouri, has been privileged to participate in such activities as a loyal, diligent, and industrious member of Troop 65, which will bestow upon him the rank of Eagle Scout during appropriate ceremonies on February 24, 2002, at the Piedmont Methodist Church; and

Whereas, Jason culminated his Scouting endeavor with the successful completion of his required Eagle project that took him many hours to plan, organize, and carry out for the overall benefit of others by building under-stage, hideaway, mobile chair racks for the new Clearwater Family Youth Center in Piedmont; and

Whereas, Jason always took the time and continually put forth the energy to perform his duties in the most efficient and effective manner possible and truly excelled while assuming various leadership positions; and

Whereas, Jason has ample reason to be exceedingly proud of his other impressive achievements which include earning the required number of merit badges; and

Whereas, Jason has joined other outstanding American citizens who have become Eagle Scouts, among them former President Gerald R. Ford, Jr., astronaut Neil A. Armstrong, and film director and producer Steven Spielberg; and

Whereas, it is only with the commitment, ability, and enthusiasm of such young Missourians as Jason Littles that America can continue to maintain respect as the greatest nation in the world:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously in conveying to Jason Littles a message of appreciation for his steadfast determination to succeed in Scouts, in congratulating him as he attains the rank of Eagle, and in wishing him much fulfillment in pursuing new avenues of challenge in the years ahead; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout Jason Littles.
